

being a ham and an engineer i am fully aware of the interference that will be cause by plc broad band. i am equally concerned about the increase of electrical fields that will cover entire cities. the health concerns should also be studied. interference with ham activities as well as commerical service is a certain out come thanks tom mclaughlin